JAS, EMERSON, H E.
For Pamphlet and test report
address N. F. BURNHAM, York, Pa

By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes us as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanks-giving for blessings we may unite pray-ers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continu-

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 14th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and [L.S.] of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh. U. S. GRANT.

Congress cannot make laws establishing or prohibiting any religion; that matrimony is to be a civil contract; and that religious institutions cannot possess property. In additiou, the Jesuits have been ordered to leave Mexico at the first opportunity. These laws indicate that the power of priestcraft is broken in that country; but ecclesiastical usurpation has ever been tenacious of life.

A carefully collected report of the maratime losses caused by the gale of the 24th of August last, has been made by the Washington Signal Office. From it we learn that four hundred and thirty-five small fishing schooners were lost in the neighborhood of the St. Lawrence Gulf and the Atlantic shores of Nova Scotia and Newfoundland. The total number of vessels lost amounts to one thousand one hundred and twentytwo, and at least five hundred persons

The report also shows that about nine hundred buildings were destroyed or injured by this storm, and a hundred persons killed on land.

Specie Payments.

Smart theorists are deluging the news papers with plans to make the late money panic subservient to the resumption of a specie currency, and thus, in their parlance, to snatch a victory from what appeared at one time a great disaster. The schemes are almost as numerous as the projectors. In all that we have noticed, a failure to prevent the shrinkage in values, which everybody knows must ensue from an immediate return to specie payments, makes them undesirable. They all seem to be based on the resumption of the Treasury to pay out gold for greenbacks. This was the plan of Mr Greeley and of Mr. McCul-

The gradual fall in the price of gold betokens that soon greensbacks will be at par. While a fluctuating currency is not desirable, some in the South see with dismay the prospect of a metallic medium; for their hopes of working out of debt are in obtaining high prices for their produce. Most of our people, however, whose liabilities were greater than their means, have passed through the courts of bankruptcy, and the number of those who will be injured by the resumption of specie payments is incon-

A dispatch from Berlin, of the 13th,

The Ministers of Commerce and the Interior have issued instructions to the district authorities to expel all emigra-tion agents who are domiciled in Ger-

The arrival of German immigrants at all ports in the United States, for the year ending the 30th of June last, amounted to very nearly one hundred and fifty thousand. When this large exodus from the fatherland is considered, it is no wonder that the government desires to put a period to it. But it caunot be done. America offers too much to the laborers and mechanics of Europe for the tide which has been setting in this direction so long to be turned .-Every German and every foreigner domiciled here is an effective agent of immigration. Every new ship for the transportation of persons cheaply is an agent; and finally, the government which issues such decrees as the above, is more energetic in securing emigration than anything else.

The iron of the wheels, to use Major Anderson's words, "is the best ever put into a cat wheel," and even here there is a saving of several dollars per wheel over a Northern purchase. The improvements do not stop here. Between the truck and the car is placed Major Anderson's invention, called a "trussed spring bolster," which is ingenious and wonderfully beneficial. Quoting from the patent specification, we find that "the object of the invention is to diminish the vibration of railroad cars in motion, and to give additional strength to the frame of the car by transferring the bearing at the support from the centre to two points near the side sills of the car, thus giving greater safety and comfort to passengers."

Every traveller knows of the inconvenience and discomfort of riding in a new car, with unadjusted springs. On the trial trip yesterday, though on a comparatively rough road, at a speed of over forty miles per hour, the jolting was very slight, and reminded one more of the ride from Philadelphia to New York, in speed and comfort, than we have observed on any Road in the South. This was owing, in a great measure, to this wonderful invention of Major Anderson, which, in our opinion, is destined to become a necessity on all well-managed

Taequal to any of Northern make, and, leading him, all fell off the cliff. while far from being as elaborate as many, it is as comfortable and easy as any in the country. Much of the decorating was done by Mr. Burr, of this city. This car is entitled to this notice from the fact that it is of home manufacture, and, although, in reality costing nearly $2,000 less than a car of the same class, purchased North, it would be cheaper for the road and for us all, even, if it cost as much as the northern made car, because of greater durability, and is, in fact, the great secret of success-to encourage home manufactures. And we rejoice to see it illustrated by this road. More eloquent pens than ours have written of the beautiful lake Waccamaw, with its misty distant shores and its vast wealth of many hued foliage, its sweet woodland silence, broken only by the gentle ripple of the tiny waves and the falling of nuts from the heavily laden trees; and more vigorous pens have placed upon everlasting record the benevolence and wonderful hospitality of Mrs. Brothers and Mrs. Carroll, whose names have gone out over the entire South, as the presiders over the one bright oasis of good food along the long southern desert of indigestible and frightfully compounded articles placed before starving humanity. We will content ourself by saying that we had heard of Mrs. Brothers, for years, but never met her until yesterday. She has not been over praised. The trip, for comfort and attention could not have been improved, and the memory of the day will peer through the dusty clouds of the future when thundering, jolting and suffocating in some fancy built car, without the comforts of this one, with no patent bolster and no Captain Calais, we sigh for the comforts experienced on this really pleasant occasion.
